School Fees, learning materials and uniforms support

We support children in Thailand, Nepal and Bhutan with annual school fees.

Nima Dema, from Bhutan, wants to be a teacher but her mother is a widow with 4 kids and she can't afford her studies.

Rahul and Deepaks are Hindu kids from Nepal, their mother was killed by her Indian husband. The boys were taken to Nepal to live with their grandmother. But they live in great poverty and would not be able to afford school fees.

Katchpol and Siripatsorn are half orphans, their father died, the mother is not taking care of them, so they live with an aunt who is struggling to afford school fees and uniforms.

Ringit and Gadafi are two muslim girls in Thailand. Their mother has 9 kids and the husband is not taking care of them. They need school fees and uniforms.
